The background is a dark, moody green with a complex, organic texture. It features large, irregular watercolor-style washes of varying shades of green, from deep forest green to a slightly lighter, more vibrant teal. Scattered throughout the composition are numerous small, bright red or orange specks, some appearing as clusters and others as isolated dots. The overall effect is one of depth and mystery, with the text serving as a focal point in the center.
